Reflections Questions:

1. Why do you think that God specializes in using nameless Christians so often in order to obtain maximum glory for Himself?
2. What does this statement mean to you: "We should pray for a moment that will become a movement!"
3. How does a relational message turn into a transformational message?
4. In your opinion, what are the essentials that every church should embrace? And how are you doing in your Christian walk with embracing those essentials? How can you become better at embracing those essentials?
5. Why is sensitivity important in order to get a word from the Lord?
